NEWS RELEASE

SAPD Detective Involved in Shooting

This information is based on a preliminary investigation. At around 1:45 PM, San Antonio Police ROP (Repeat Offenders Program) detectives were on surveillance in the 11000 block of Las Vegas watching for a male and female suspect who had 3 felony warrants and 1 misdemeanor warrant, respectively.

The female suspect was seen leaving the location and ended up at a nearby restaurant where detectives arrested her on the misdemeanor warrant. Methamphetamine was also found on her person. She agreed to work with detectives in locating her boyfriend, the male suspect, wanted on the felony warrants. Over the telephone, she coordinated a meeting with him at a nearby hotel room the two had rented.

Detectives conducted surveillance on the hotel parking lot of the Pear Tree Inn, 143 NE Loop 410. The male suspect was seen driving onto the hotel parking lot in a Mazda Protégé. Police attempted to stop the suspect's vehicle. The suspect failed to stop and continued on crashing into 5 vehicles on the parking lot including 3 unmarked SAPD vehicles and 2 trucks. As the suspect continued to flee in his vehicle, 34-year-old Detective Ernest Trevino, an 11-year veteran, was on foot when the suspect's vehicle began to move towards Detective Trevino. Detective Trevino, fearing for his own life, fired one time at the suspect hitting him in the left hand and right arm.

After the shooting, detectives entered the hotel room, rented by the two suspects, and found methamphetamine along with chemicals used to create a meth lab. The meth lab was not fully functional.

Scott William Jessup, DOB: 8-27-66, was transported by EMS to University Hospital with non life-threatening injuries. Jessup faces an Attempt to Commit Capital Murder charge along with his original felony warrant charges.

Tamara Guerra, DOB: 11-8-59, faces her original misdemeanor warrant charge and a Possession of Controlled Substance charge for the methamphetamine found.

The Mazda Protégé is being processed at this time, however, methamphetamine has been found in the vehicle. Guerra's vehicle was transported to the police car pound.

Detective Ernest Trevino was not injured. The San Antonio Police Department's Shooting Team will conduct the investigation and forward their findings to the Chief of Police and the Bexar County District Attorney's Office. Detective Trevino will be placed on Administrative Duty which is standard procedure in officer-involved shootings.
